

In the Media

As a leading Canadian IP firm with extensive experience in all aspects of intellectual property, Bereskin & Parr's professionals frequently comment on leading trends and news. Our firm has become renowned in Canada and internationally for our work and specialized expertise, which makes us one of the most experienced intellectual property boutiques in Canada.

For media requests or to schedule an interview with any of our legal experts, please contact: Neil Sharma.