

Bereskin & Parr Announces the Retirement of C. Lloyd Sarginson

January 23, 2017

Lloyd Sarginson, our partner, friend, and former managing partner, has retired from the firm effective January 1, 2017.

Lloyd's excellent lawyering skills, judgment, strong business sense, honesty and compassion, have contributed significantly to our firm's culture and success. His commitment to excellence and serving clients honourably and well, has been an inspiration to all of us. He has been a great role model and will sorely be missed.

Lloyd plans to attend the forthcoming INTA Annual Meeting in Barcelona in May and would be glad to see any of his friends and clients who may wish to meet with him.

We wish Lloyd the best in the next chapter of his life as he and his wife enjoy a well-deserved, active retirement.
