

Bereskin & Parr Shortlisted for “Outstanding Firm” in Chambers Diversity & Inclusion Awards: North America 2020

July 23, 2020

Bereskin & Parr is delighted to announce that our firm has been shortlisted at the Chambers Diversity & Inclusion Awards: North America 2020 in association with Kirkland & Ellis. We are pleased to have been shortlisted in the following category:

- Outstanding Firm for Furthering Diversity and Inclusion - Canada

To be shortlisted in these awards means that Bereskin & Parr is truly a diversity and inclusion leader in the legal profession.

Bereskin & Parr has a strong commitment to diversity and inclusion. This is exemplified by our leadership, our Diversity, Equality and Inclusion (DEI) Policy, our hiring practices, our Diversity and Inclusion Committee, and our participation in the Canadian Law Firm Diversity and Inclusion Network (LFDIN), a group of prominent Canadian law firms that together advance diversity and inclusion initiatives in the Canadian legal community.

We are proud to be leaders in Diversity&Inclusion and remain committed to promoting D&I in the firm.
