

Bereskin & Parr Welcomes Mary Martin as Chief Operating Officer

April 3, 2017

Bereskin & Parr is pleased to welcome Mary Martin as the firm's first Chief Operating Officer.

Drawing on more than 25 years of management experience in the professional services environment, Mary will oversee our firm's ongoing operations, including the design and implementation of business strategies, plans and procedures. As COO, Mary will lead the firm's business units including Finance, IT, Business Development & Marketing, Human Resources and Student & Associate Affairs.

Mary's career spans more than two decades in both private and public organizations, making her a valuable addition to our leadership team.

We look forward to the support Mary will provide our firm.
