

Cynthia Rowden Awarded IPIC's Member of Distinction

September 27, 2019

Bereskin & Parr LLP is proud to announce that Cynthia Rowden was awarded Member of Distinction of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada (IPIC). A Member of Distinction is an individual who reflects honour and credit upon the Institute. Awarding such Membership requires a resolution by Council after consideration of nominations submitted by the members of the Institute.

Cynthia specializes in all areas of trademark and copyright law. She is past president of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada (IPIC), and has previously chaired both its Trademark Joint Liaison and Trademark Legislation Committees.

To learn more about IPIC's Members of Distinction and Honorary Members, click here.

To learn more about IPIC's memberships, click here.