

Four Bereskin & Parr Practitioners recognized as Thought Leaders in 2018 by Who's Who Legal Canada

January 9, 2018

Dan Bereskin and Cynthia Rowden have been recognized for Trademarks, for their broad expertise and experience amongst some of the world's leading legal practitioners who also innovate and inspire, going above and beyond for their clients. Also recognized are Robert Storey and Janice Bereskin.

Who's Who Legal identifies the leading legal practitioners in 34 areas of business law and features over 16,000 of the world's leading private practice lawyers in over 100 countries. Specialists who meet independent international research criteria are listed and selected based on comprehensive, independent survey work with both general counsel and private practice lawyers worldwide.

For more information, please visit here