

Amrita V. Singh
B.H.Sc. (Biology), J.D.

Associate | Toronto
416.957.1167
asingh@bereskinparr.com

Experience

Amrita V. Singh is an associate at Bereskin & Parr LLP. Her practice focuses on litigation in all areas of intellectual property, including patents, trademarks, copyright, and confidential information.

Amrita is active in the Ontario Bar Association (OBA) – she is currently an elected representative for Toronto on the OBA Council, the Public Affairs Liaison for the Information Technology and Intellectual Property section executive, and a member-at-large of the Women Lawyers Forum section executive. She also coaches high school students through the OBA/Ontario Justice Education Network's competitive mock trials program.

In addition, Amrita is the Vice-Chair of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada's (IPIC) Litigation committee, and is on IPIC's Women in IP and Young Practitioners committees. She is also an active member of the firm's Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Amrita is a member-at-large of the Canadian Bar Association's (CBA) Intellectual Property section executive, and is a member of the CBA Patent and Industrial Design Committee. She is also an active member of the Advocates' Society and Toronto Intellectual Property Group (TIPG), and is an elected member of Queen's University Council.

Amrita's recent representative decisions and cases include:

- Mainstreet Equity Corp v Canadian Mortgage Capital Corp et al, T-2080-17
- Hilton Worldwide Holding LLP v Miller Thomson LLP, 2019 FCA 193
- BeneFACT Consulting Group Inc v Glassdoor, Inc., [2019] OJ No 4002
- BeneFACT Consulting Group Inc and Michael Chorr v Glassdoor Inc, [2018] OJ No 7203
- NOCO Co v SBI Smart Brands International (America) Ltd, 2018 FC 857
- Hilton Worldwide Holding LLP v Miller Thomson, 2018 FC 895
- Copperhead Industrial Inc v Canada (Attorney General), 2018

Practice Groups

Copyright & Digital Media
Dispute Resolution
Industrial Designs
Litigation
Patents
Trademarks

Education

J.D., Queen's University, 2012
B.H.Sc. (Biology), Western University, 2008

Qualifications

Admitted to the Ontario Bar, 2013

Professional Memberships

Advocates' Society
Canadian Bar Association (CBA)
Intellectual Property Institute of Canada (IPIC), Associate
Law Society of Ontario (LSO)
Ontario Bar Association (OBA)
South Asian Bar Association (SABA)
Toronto Intellectual Property Group (TIPG)
Young Women in Law

FC 311

- Estée Lauder Cosmetics Ltd v Loveless, 2017 FC 927
- Trader Corporation v CarGurus, Inc, 2017 ONSC 1841
- MediaTube Corp v Bell Canada, 2017 FC 7
- Nova Chemicals Corp v Dow Chemical Co, 2016 FCA 216
- Association of Chartered Certified Accountants et al v Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants et al, T-1261-10

Amrita has also appeared as an expert in intellectual property law before the Canadian House of Commons' Standing Committee on Industry, Science and Technology (INDU).

While attending law school, Amrita received the 1st place Oralist prize in the First Year International Law Moot 2010 (formerly the Fasken Martineau First Year International Law Moot), and was part of the team that received the 2nd place Factum prize in the Wilson Moot 2011.

Recent Articles

- JAVEX vs. JAVELO – Federal Court of Appeal applies Vavilov to first Trademark Opposition Appeal
- Federal Court applies Vavilov Standard of Review for the first time in an Opposition Decision Appeal
- It's Official: Federal Court Protective Orders were Never Dead
- 2019 Will Go Down in History as "The Year of Change" in Canadian Trademark Law Part III
- Anne with an 'E', Discovery Plans with a 'P'