

Chantalle Briggs

Ph.D. (Anatomy, Neurobio & Neuroscience) B.Sc., (Biology)

Articling Student | Toronto
416.957.6576
cbriggs@bereskinparr.com

Experience

Chantalle Briggs is an articling student with Bereskin & Parr LLP. Her practice focuses on life sciences, medical devices, and plant breeders' rights.

Chantalle graduated from the Juris Doctor program at the University of New Brunswick. She holds a Doctor of Philosophy in Anatomy & Neurobiology and Neuroscience from Dalhousie University and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from McGill University. Prior to joining Bereskin & Parr, Chantalle worked as a research associate within the life sciences field in both Canada and Japan where she developed high-level technical skills in research, intellectual property, and regulatory issues.

Chantalle has authored and co-authored several publications on neuroscience and neuropharmacology. In 2019, Chantalle co-authored an article titled Sleep deprivation-induced pre- and postsynaptic modulation of orexin neurons

Chantalle is fluent in English and French.

Recent Articles

- "CAN YOU HEAR ME?": ZOOM Fatigue Hits the EPO
- Innovation Landscape Improving for Canadian Start-Ups (COVID-19 & IP Update)
- The Show Must Go On: Canadian Academic Researchers Head Back to the Bench (COVID-19 & IP Update)

Practice Groups

Life Sciences
Medical Devices
Patents
Plant Breeders' Rights

Education

J.D., University of New Brunswick, 2021
Ph.D., Anatomy & Neurobiology & Neuroscience, Dalhousie University, 2017
Bachelor of Science, Biology, McGill University, 2008