Experience

Janice Bereskin is a partner with Bereskin & Parr LLP, leader of the firm's Trademarks practice group and a member of the firm's Executive Committee.

Her practice focuses on Canadian and international trademarks. She has in-depth experience in search analysis, filing applications, oppositions and cancellation proceedings. Janice manages large trademark portfolios of Canadian and international companies and portfolio management. She offers clients strategic advice for protecting and managing their trademarks in Canada and abroad.

Janice was a recipient of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada (IPIC) Education Foundation Prize for achieving the highest mark overall in the Canadian Trade-mark Agent Examination. Janice also completed the Intellectual Property Summer Institute (IPSI) program at the Franklin Pierce Law Centre.

Janice is an active member of the International Trademark Association (INTA). She served on INTA's Board of Directors and co-chaired an INTA Presidential Task Force. In 2015, INTA honoured Janice with the Volunteer Service Award in the Advancement of the Association. Currently, Janice is a member of the Leadership Development Committee, and co-chair of the Best Practices Subcommittee.
