

Ray Kovarik

B.A. (Comp. Sci. & Econ.), M.B.A., LL.M. (IP Law), J.D.

Associate | Toronto
416.957.1186
rkovarik@bereskinparr.com

Experience

Ray Kovarik is an associate with Bereskin & Parr LLP and member of the Electrical & Computer Technology practice group.

Ray articulated with Bereskin & Parr in 2018. Prior to joining Bereskin & Parr as an associate in 2019, he was an associate at a boutique IP firm in Toronto. At McMaster University, Ray completed a combined Computer Science and Economics degree and an MBA. He was a visiting scholar at the Franklin Pierce Center for Intellectual Property before obtaining an LL.M. specializing in IP law at George Washington University. Ray is licensed to practice in Massachusetts and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2018.

Recent Articles

- Patentability of Computer-Implemented Inventions in Canada - The Amazon Saga Continues
- Federal Court Rejects Patent Office's Approach to Claim Construction: Music to the Ears of Patentees in the Medical Diagnostic and Computer-Related Fields
- AI in Focus: BlueDot and the Response to COVID-19
- USPTO: AI Cannot Be Named as Inventor on Patent
- Canadians Ramping Up COVID-19 Collaborations and IP

Practice Groups

Artificial Intelligence (AI)
COVID-19
Electrical & Computer Technology
Financial Technology
Patents

Education

LL.M. (IP), George Washington University, 2012
J.D., Vermont Law School, 2010
M.B.A., McMaster University, 1997
B.A., McMaster University, 1995

Qualifications

Admitted to the Ontario Bar, 2018
Admitted to the Massachusetts Bar, 2010

Professional Memberships

Law Society of Ontario (LSO)